Peter Pan (The Panto!) - A Synopsis

Welcome to Peter Pan (The Panto!).

Captain Hook is out to avenge the loss of his hand and it's up to Peter Pan, Wendy, Tiger Lily and all their friends to foil the dastardly brute's plans! Cheer on the heroes, boo the baddies and sing along as you fly away to Neverland to have fun and adventure with J.M. Barrie's beloved characters in the style of a traditional English pantomime...

Please Note!

When the author of 'Peter Pan', J. M. Barrie, passed away, within his will he granted the rights of the children's classic to Great Ormond Street Hospital in London, England. Great Ormond Street is a hospital for children and have put J.M. Barrie's generous gift to good use by developing treatments and in caring for its young patients. However, the rights to 'Peter Pan' do not extend to Canada.

SMP Dramatics, though, will still be honouring J. M. Barrie's wishes by donating a portion of profits from the show to BC Children's Hospital to carry on the great work enabled by this beloved children's story.

The Producers Would Like to Gratefully Acknowledge...

Principal Cast

Alan Blackwell (Peter Pan)

Alan is thrilled to be back at SMP working with such a talented cast and crew. Although he took a short break from the SMP family he is not new to the SMP stage. His first production was in 2007. Alan has performed with various companies including Theatre Under The Stars, Footlight Theatre Company and Theatre West Van. Alan would like to send a special shout out to his Mom for her continuous support. Enjoy the show and now...OFF TO

NEVERLAND!

Emily Duholke (Wendy)

Emily is so excited to be back in Vancouver and working again with SMP! Before leaving to complete her undergrad in Ontario, she was something of a panto veteran with 12 pantomimes under her belt (from Babes in the Woods in 1997 to Alice in Wonderland in 2008). She is hoping the cast will be nice to her as she eases back into the habit of terrible puns and questionable dames. Emily is so glad you are here to be amazed and/or appalled by her not-so-momentous return to the stage.

Scott Alpen (Hook / Mr Darling)

After many years of being an overbearing and demanding director, Scott finally got up the courage to put himself in front of an audience and at the mercy of another director. God help us all. The role of Captain Hook is tailor made for this nasty, egotistic pirate at heart, but with a soft and cuddly side that is often well hidden. Arghhhhhhhhh. Shiver me timbers.

Peter Bond (Tiger Lily)

Peter is very excited to be back on stage as Tiger Lily in this year's Peter Pan, after directing Cinderella and assistant-directing last year's Knight Fever! This is Peter's 13th pantomime with SMP and his second time playing the Dame (after Wizard of Oz' Auntie Em.) His favourite past roles include Basil Fawley in Fawley Towers, Tuck the Rat in Dick Whittington, and the Big Bad Wolf in Red Riding Hood. In his spare time, Peter also teaches high school drama and science at Carson Graham. He enjoyed very much working with all the talented cast and crew, and thanks Mrs. Darling for teaching him how to be a real woman!

Corey Hollett (Smee)

This is Corey's third year with SMP, most recently having played the well-rounded Sir Cumference last year in Knight Fever! The pirate Smee is his biggest role so FARRR, but he's looking forward to the challenge!

Emma Prangley (Tinkerbell)

Emma is a grade nine student at Argyle secondary school. This is now her sixth show with SMP. She has been a part of the youth productions and pantomimes for three years. Being British, Emma has been boozing at the pantomime baddies since she was a toddler. When Emma is not on the stage you'll often find her on a soccer field or skiing down a mountain. She is forever grateful to the SMP family for the heartfelt welcome and mentorship right from the start.

Carolyn Hornell (Myrtle the Mermaid)

Carolyn has enjoyed the escape into panto fantasy immensely. Playing a 40-something housewife who needs a bottle or two to get through the day is truly a departure from the everyday. Type cast? NO! A power suit skirt fits the same as a mermaid tail, it's just not as much fun.

Robin Swanston (Starkey)

Robin has been with SMP for nine years, and has loved every minute of it! Starting off as a rotten kid in the first SMP youth production and moving on to Abu the monkey as his first role in the Panto, he's as excited as ever to play a nasty, stinky, old pirate! Thanks to all the people at Panto for making it such a wonderful experience!

Sadie Donovan (Mrs Darling / Pirate)

Sadie is thrilled to be performing as Mrs. Darling in her first season with SMP. Before this, she worked for two seasons with a theatre company called Calithumpians. Sadie fondly recalls her time with the troupe wherein she collectively wrote plays with fellow cast members, offered drama workshops for aspiring Calithumpians-to-be, and took tourists on Haunted Hikes. Sadie is also an avid singer, guitarist, and pianist. She has immensely enjoyed working with the SMP cast and crew and wishes to thank Tiger Lily for teaching her that "a dame who knows the ropes isn't likely to get tied up"!

The Director

Richard Wright

Richard is a simple fellow. He enjoys board games, movies, theatrical pursuits and, of course, bacon. He trained as an actor, stage manager and theatrical technician in London, England and has worked professionally in those disciplines in the West End, on touring productions around the UK and Europe and in the London and Edinburgh fringe. He now lives in North Vancouver and loves the family atmosphere of SMP. Having never directed a pantomime before, he hopes he got it right!

In Loving Memory

~ Marjorie Whiteside ~

Lifetime Member, SMP

Marjorie spoke the very first words of SMP's very first Pantomime, Cinderella, in 1996.

"Come along children. It's bedtime. Come along. If you are here in a minute, I'll read a story. Otherwise, it will be straight to bed..."
