SYNOPSIS

A long time ago in a pantomime far, far away... The distant Star System of Nonamia is held in the iron grip of the wicked Queen Evilena. This vain and preening monarch has taken a dislike to her stepdaughter, the beautiful Princess Starlight, and has instructed her henchman, the sinister Dark Crater to dispose of the child! Who can save her?

Perhaps the crew of the Starship USS Compromise can help - lead by Captain Jane Skirt, along with her new beau, the Vulcan Mr. Shock. But first, Skirt and Shock must team up with young Toque Longboarder, a couple of droids, and a Cantina full of aliens to save the Princess and stop the Evil Queen's Despair Star from bringing er... despair to the people of Nonamia!

Join us for fun songs, epic spaceship battles, and lots of audience participation in SMP Dramatics' homage to science fiction - this silly and wondrous Trek through the Stars - SPACE the Pantomime!

PLEASE NOTE!

A strobe light and smoke effects are used in the show. Also, please keep the centre aisle clear for use of the actors - warp speed takes some room!

PRINCIPAL CAST

Owen Sigurdsson (Captain Skirt)

Owen is very enthusiastic about his role as Captain Skirt. A veteran panto chorus member, this is Owen's first major role in an SMP pantomime. He has also performed in and worked as an acting mentor for many SMP youth productions. With this new sci-fi twist on the story line of our panto, Owen is looking forward to experiencing both new and old aspects of the SMP scene. Burlesque humour and Kirkesque dialogue, together with memorable songs are just a few of the things to be looking forward to while enjoying Owen's time on stage tonight. Live long and prosper!

Robin Swanston (Mr Shock)

Robin is very pleased to be playing a lead role in SPACE The Pantomime. He has acted in many SMP panto productions, and has also enjoyed a number of roles in the SMP Youth productions. While Robin has experienced lots of other productions, he considers SPACE the final frontier. A shocking performance that seems highly illogical.

Martin Stuible (Dark Crater)

This is Martin's fourth pantomime and sixth SMP Production. Previous panto roles include Captain Long John Tin Foil, Abanazer, and Bella, Cinderella's evil step-sister. He also played Donny in Fawty Towers, and was part of the great ensemble that put A Little Grimley Evening on the stage in 2014. The role of Dark Crater is a dream come true, first ignited by the opening credits when Martin was a wee lad, and saw Star Wars at the Stanley Theatre in 1977. Sci Fi. Light sabres. Evil. What's not to love?

Carolyn Hornell (Queen Evilena)

Carolyn is happy to call SMP home for the 3rd year in a row. It's a wonderful group of families and a great activity to do with her son, Jacob. Rumours abound that she is typecast as the villain, but she assures us that it is a super cheap form of therapy. She is actually very nice; she just saves the evil for the stage.

PRINCIPAL CAST

Sadie Donovan (Toque Longboarder)

Sadie is excited to be back for her second season with SMP, portraying the angst-ridden, skateboard-toting hero, Toque Longboarder. When not playing a jaded youth or singing glam-rock ballads, Sadie channels her inner nerd through Star Trek reruns, Firefly marathons, and excessive references to The Princess Bride. Sadie has immensely enjoyed another fantastic season of working with the SMP cast and crew. She hopes the audience has as much fun watching the play as she did acting in it. May the Farce be with you!

Clare Zemcov (Princess Starlight)

Clare has been with SMP for what seems like forever, originally playing Jill of Babes in the Wood with Peter Bond in 1997. Although she shares hardly any similarities with her SPACE character, Princess Starlight - who is kind, clever, and sassy - Clare has tried to deliver as realistic a performance as she can. She thanks everyone in the cast and crew for their help, support, and joyous weekly hilarity during rehearsals. Clare performs this year with the memory of Des Harris in her heart, remembering his passion for panto, and knowing he is still watching and laughing from above.

Leslie Ritchey (Razzle)

Leslie is back for her third season on stage with the SMP family. She played Queen Guinevere in Knight Fever (2013) and last year had a blast in Peter Pan playing Amelia Earhart turned mermaid turned Amelia Earhart turned..... She is thrilled to be on stage with her sons and the rest of the hilarious cast, checking in as a spacey stormtrooper in this far, far out adventure!

Anne Mak (Dazzle)

Born in England and raised by parents who love theatre, it may come as a surprise that this is Anne's panto debut. Since seeing her first SMP production Alice in Wonderland seven years ago, it has taken a while to pluck up courage to audition. But what better part than a dim-witted stormtrooper to launch her career in amateur dramatics! Learning her lines and getting ready to Dazzle has been a challenging but enjoyable addition to her normal roles of mother and nurse. She is grateful to SMP for this opportunity to indulge her creative side!

Corey Hollett (C4)

Corey returns for his 4th year with SMP after enjoying prior roles such as Fabrizio in Cinderella, Sir Cumference in Knight Fever, and Smeee in Peter Pan! Corey is enjoying taking time in the midst of finishing his Music Therapy Degree at Cap U and performing with the Chor Leoni Men's Choir to take on the explosive role of C4. As a famous Doctor once said, Allons-y!

PRINCIPAL CAST

Katherine Sigurdsson (HD-3D)

Katherine is thrilled to be playing the role of HD-3D. This is her second year with SMP, finally joining her husband and two children who had been involved since 2011. After playing a mermaid in last year's production of Peter Pan, Katherine asked her family, "Why didn't you tell me what I was missing?" She is happy to be with SMP again this year.

Roy Hunt (Master Yolo)

Roy jumped at the chance to play Yolo. And why not? How could he resist the opportunity to combine the suaveness of Frank Sinatra, the charm of 007, and the wisdom of Mr. Miyagi. After all, You Only Live Once. This is Roy's fourth show with SMP.

Emily Duholke (Mystic Computer / Gorn)

This is Emily's 14th panto. Starring in her first pantomime at the tender age of 7, she took a break from 2009-2012 to move Ontario to complete her undergrad. She returned to Vancouver in 2012 due to the overwhelming demand from her fans... well that, and the fact that she ran out of money and moving back in with her parents seemed like the only option. Emily is thrilled to be a part of SPACE and would like to shout out to her lovely friends and family, the amazing Peter Bond, and all of you for being crazy enough to come watch! Enjoy the show!

THE DIRECTOR

Peter Bond
SPACE, the Final Frontier er... Pantomime! This is Peter's second trip through the galaxy as Director (after Cinderella '12) - and he is honoured to be working again with such an amazing cast and crew. Peter wants to thank everyone for the trust they put in him, spearheading such a non-traditional show, with SMP boldly going where it has never gone before! A science fiction pantomime has long been bubbling in Peter's and many of SMP geeks' heads, and to see it come to life - with all its aliens, spaceships, and lightsabers - is truly a dream come true! Peter and his family have been involved with SMP since its inception, with a Babe in Babes in the Woods '97. His favorite roles include Tuck the Rat in Dick Whittington '05, Basil in Fawcety Towers '10, and Tiger Lily in Peter Pan '14. May the Force be with you!
